

trallallero²⁰²⁶

festival internazionale di teatro e cultura per le nuove generazioni

Dear teachers,

Trallallero is just around the corner.

With the TRALLALLERO CARE project, we have been trying for years to bring people in difficulty (economic, social, physical...) closer together through practices such as suspended tickets, dedicated assistance, targeted workshops and many other initiatives that take place throughout the year.

Since last year, we have also been trying to accompany teachers and parents in discovering the shows to make the experience more accessible to children and young people with disabilities or with special cognitive, sensory or emotional-relational needs.

We have therefore asked the companies participating in the festival to send us some additional information about the shows, in order to work together to improve accessibility to the theatrical and cultural events on offer.

Below you will find material relating to the show you have chosen. Aware that every person is different, and that the same show may not always be accessible and enjoyable in the same way for every spectator, we hope that this will be a useful tool for you.

We remain at your complete disposal for any further information you may require and invite you to report any specific cases and special needs to us so that we can take steps to improve the theatre experience:

Thank you once again to all the companies and artists for understanding the importance of this initiative.
